

● Leonardt 15

The map displays the Iberian Peninsula with a network of blue lines representing rivers. Red circles (●) are placed at various locations, indicating the presence of Leonardt 15. White squares (□) are placed at other locations, indicating its absence. A blue shaded area is located in the southwestern part of the peninsula, near the coast. The distribution is widespread, with positive results found in the north, center, and south.